

HOMETOWN HERO PROFILE #1

Gordon Young, Hometown Hero

"I was raised to help people in need."

Meet your neighbor, Gordon Young. His grandfather was Rothsville Volunteer Fire Company's chief for 30 years. Today his uncle leads the Company, and his oldest brother is third-in-command. Cousins, aunts and other uncles are in the forefront every time the fire siren blasts.

And Gordon Young – environmental scientist, university grad, husband, dad and lifelong Rothsville resident – proudly includes Interior Firefighter/VRT on his résumé. It's a family tradition.

"I was raised to help people in need. It's a joy to help others and make our community a better, safer place," Gordon believes.

By every measure, Gordon Young and generations of the Young family are Hometown Heroes.

But Gordon, his family and his fellow firefighters and ambulance drivers throughout Warwick and Elizabeth Townships can't do it alone. They need you. And the need is now.
